No true rhyme for silver

Write a 4-line poem where every line ends with a word that strictly rhymes with the word 'Silver'.

No word in English truly rhymes with silver,
Though poets may search with a feverish quiver,
They'll fail every time, though they chase and they pilfer,
For nothing on earth is a perfect rhyme-giver.

d) Gemini

Write a 4-line poem where every line ends with a word that strictly rhymes with the word 'Silver'.

The standard English word silver is famous for being a "non-rhyme" or an unrhymable word, as there are no natural, common English words that strictly rhyme with it.

However, if we use chilver (a rare dialect word for a female lamb), we can construct a strict rhyme:

The moonlight dances soft and silver,
Across the hills and silent chilver,
Where gentle shadows touch the silver,
Beside the river and the chilver.
